

Celebrate July 4th in Style:

A Luxury East Coast Escape on the Queen Mary 2

Dear Friends,

Are you ready to redefine your summer holiday? I am thrilled to invite you to join an exclusive group adventure aboard the legendary Queen Mary 2, sailing from New York City for a spectacular 7-night Independence Day celebration voyage.

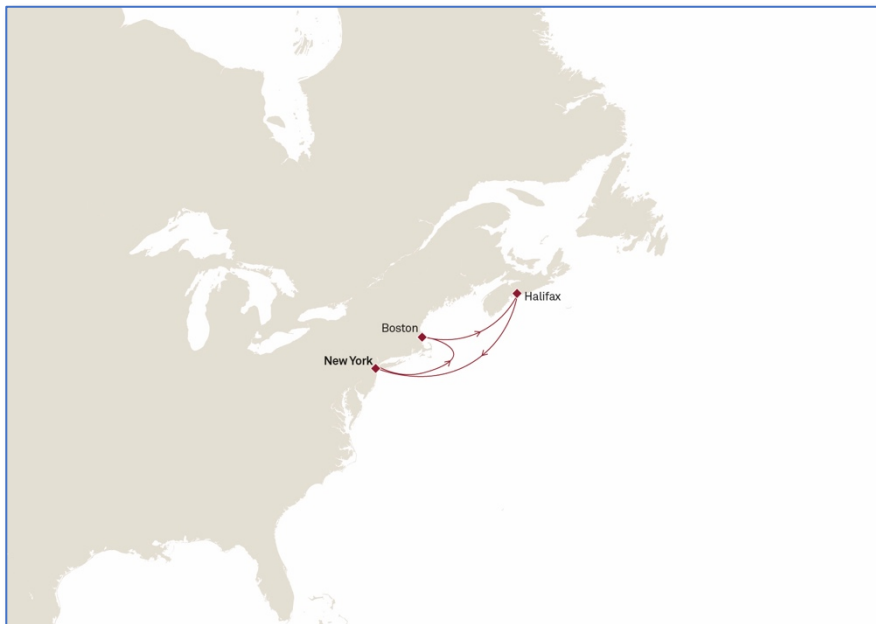

There is no better way to experience the charm of the Atlantic coast than from the decks of the world's only true ocean liner.

The Voyage: M717 – A Classic East Coast Journey

From July 2 to July 9, 2027, we will depart from the heart of New York City, sailing north to discover the rich history and maritime heritage of the region.

- Boston, MA: Immerse yourself in the birthplace of American history, from the Freedom Trail to the charm of Beacon Hill. [We will be in port in Boston for July 4th!]
- Halifax, NS: Experience the rugged beauty and warm hospitality of Canada's Atlantic coast.
- At Sea: Enjoy the unparalleled grace of the Queen Mary 2, including the largest library at sea, West End-style revues, and the majestic Queens Room ballroom.

Why Join Our Group?

By traveling as part of our specially curated group, you gain more than just a cruise—you gain access to an elevated experience. We have curated a suite of exclusive amenities to ensure your voyage is truly unforgettable:

- Exclusive Group Perks: As a member of our group, you will enjoy unique benefits, including potential onboard credits, and invitations to private group gatherings.

- The Cunard Difference: Experience the legendary White Star Service™, imaginative fine dining, and Cunard Insights® enrichment programs that bring the history and culture of our ports to life.
- Tailored for Travelers: Whether you are a food enthusiast looking forward to our signature Afternoon Tea, a ballroom dancing fan, or simply someone who craves pampering at the Mareel® Spa, this itinerary offers something special for everyone.

Space is Limited

We have secured a select number of staterooms for this voyage, and I would love for you to be part of this group. Reserving as part of a group allows you to enjoy these premium amenities while sharing the experience with like-minded friends and travelers.

Are you ready to set sail?

If you would like to review the available categories—including our Britannia inside staterooms, oceanview options, or sheltered balconies—please let me know. I would be happy to provide a personalized quote and discuss the current incentives available for this voyage.

I look forward to sharing this remarkable journey with you.

Warm regards,

Ken Smith

Euchre Friends Travel

www.euchrefriendstravel.com

616-902-4194

PS. Cunard is currently offering special Labor Day savings (now through Sep. 9), with prices as low as $999 per person for this cruise, including the potential for some onboard credit (depending on group size). Amanda and I will be booking this cruise, and we would love to have you join us!

